

SPRING SUMMER 2015
DEBUT COLLECTION

My husband Dave and I have owned KIALOA for 23 years. The company started on the island of Oahu on Dave's parent's lanai and was born out of our love for outrigger paddling.

At KIALOA our tagline expresses what we feel about paddling: Together on the Water. Over the years, we have discovered two common threads that bind all paddlers together - love of being on the water, and sharing the paddling lifestyle.

This year we've taken these threads and woven them together to create our 2015 apparel line. Tees, caps, boardshorts, pareos, and hoodies - there's something for everyone - so even when you're not paddling, you can stay connected to your passion.
